INSURANCE TAX TO BE EFFECTIVE DECEMBER 1

Half-Cent Per Dollar of Premium Must be Paid Thenceforth

STAMPS ARE PROVIDED

May be Purchased From Revenue Collectors or Other Autnorized Agents

After December 1, either insurance men or the long-suffering public will have to pay a tax of one-half cent on each dollar of premium on every policy of insurance. This will be from the reason that on that date the "Emergency Revenue Law" will become effective.

The Emergency Revenue Law is specific and taxes every kind of property insurance in sight, the same that other kinds of emergency taxes tax everything in sight, including beer and whiskey, emergency and otherwise.

The instructions read that one-half cent of tax will be imposed on each dollar of premium on every policy of insurance upon property of any description, including rents or profits, whether against peril by sea or on inland waters, or by fire or lightning or other peril including tornado insurance." Endorsements carrying additional premiums will be included.

The tax will be paid by means of stamps that distinctly are not to be postage stamps. These will be obtainable from collectors of internal revenue or other distributing agents and postmasters as may be designated.

Practically all insurance companies have made provisions with their local agents for carrying out the tax law. However, the insurance companies do not propose to pay the freight, having instructed their agents to procure the stamps at their own expense.

LICENSES MAILABLE THIS YEAR

Automobilists Advised to Send Early to State Department

SUGGESTIONS ARE MADE

Do your Christmas shopping early but first send to the state highway department at Harrisburg for your 1915 auto license advises the department.

According to a statement issued by the automobile division of the state highway department, license plates will be sent out by parcel post. The federal postoffice department has not yet been able to devise any means of preventing congestion of the mail around the holiday season and for this reason it is advisable that applicants for licenses act promptly. License plates applied for now will be shipped to the holders prior to December 10 and by this means delay will be avoided.

The automobile division has received more than 4,000 applications for next year's licenses up to the present time. Inasmuch as the law explicitly states that the license tags for the current year expire at midnight on December 31, wise owners and operators of automobiles and motorcyclists are giving attention to the hint given several weeks ago that those who were tardy in applying would not escape the penalty of the law this year.

It is expected that more than 150,000 applications of all classes will be received for next year. In anticipation of the rush for applications the automobile division has prepared to handle next year's applications promptly.

CANAL COMMISSION RETURNS FROM WEST

Waterways of Minnesota, Iowa and Illinois Visited and Inspected by Pennsylvanians on Week's Trip

Members of the Lake Erie and Ohio River Ship Canal commission returned Friday morning to Pittsburg from a week's trip of inspection of western canals and water works. Ex-Mayor William A. Magee, chairman of the commission headed the party which included A. S. McSwigan, James A. Chambers of Pittsburg, and Tom P. Sloan, of Charleroi, members of the commission.

The object of the trip was to see how water has been utilized where it was used for navigation and power in some of the western cities. The members of the commission visited some notable works and canals. The party left Pittsburg last Friday evening.

The commission first visited St. Paul, Minn., and from there they went to Keokuk, Iowa, the seat of the largest water power plant in the world. At a cost of $50,000,000 a dam has been constructed across the Mississippi river, which backs up the water of a distance of 40 miles. The locks which were constructed in the dam are used for navigation. This power plant furnishes 75 horse power electricity to St. Louis. The plant has a capacity of 300 horse-power.

Henninpen canal at Rock Island, Ill., was also inspected. This canal is a part of the canal system connecting Michigan with the Mississippi river. The matter of rebuilding this canal system is under consideration by the state of Illinois. The governor of the state has appointed a commission to investigate the matter, similar to the Lake Erie and Ohio River Ship Canal commission appointed in Pennsylvania.

In Chicago the members of the commission went over the Chicago drainage canal. This canal was built by the people of Chicago with a three fold purpose, drainage, navigation and power. This canal was formed by turning the Chicago river back from flowing into Lake Michigan and causing it to flow into the Mississippi river at a cost of $36,000,000. The canal is 35 miles in length.

FIRE DOES DAMAGE AT DONORA HOTEL

Lawrence Hostelry Scene of Serious Blaze at Early Morning Hour---Starts in Rear of Structure in Kitchen

Fire which did damage amounting to about $3,000 threatened for a time this morning to destroy the Lawrence hotel at Donora, located at the corner of Eighth street and McKean avenue.

The fire which started near the furnace in the basement was first discovered on the ceiling of the basement about 5:45 o'clock. The dining room, a room on the second floor and one on the third floor were badly damaged. The Donora fire department quickly responded to the alarm and after a stubborn fight extinguished the fire. It is not known just how the fire originated but it is supposed that it caught from the furnace.

The Lawrence hotel is one of the leading hostelries in Donora. It is a three story brick building. Ray Coatsworth is owner and proprietor. The fire was in the back part of the hotel and didn't damage the front of the building.

The three who were honored were Mrs. Stephen Wingett, who previous to her marriage was Miss Elizabeth Jones; Mrs. James Cheshure, who was Miss Iris Ellenberger and Mrs. H. D. Mason, who was until her marriage known as Miss Blanche Frye.

Forty girls were present. Miss Rosetta Rodgers, the teacher of the class served as toastmistress and talks were given by each of the girls. Spoons were preented to the brides, who sat at a brides' table.

MINERS ELECT DOCTOR

With officers standing guard to insure that they could ballot in peace, the members of Local No. 2029 of District No. 5 of the United Mine Workers of VanVoorhis Friday afternoon elected Dr. Leroy Hoon of Monongahela as their official physician. Dr. Hoon succeeds Dr. B. E. Gamble.

An attempt to hold an election last Tuesday resulted in a near riot when Constance Speges and several companions, comprising a dissenting faction, entered the quarters of the union as the miners were in session and raised "rough house."

Speges and his friends threw the ballot box out of the window, tore up the ballots and caused such a mixup that the meeting had to be called off until Friday.

Corporal Rolier of the state troopers placed Speges under arrest Friday and when arraigned before Justice of the Peace J. B. McAlister he furnished bail for his appearance at a hearing this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The charge against him is malicious mischief and bond of $100 was demanded.

Members of the constabulary were present at the meeting Friday to see that quiet prevailed.

Biggest Game of Year Thanksgiving

Monongahela and Charleroi High Schools Preparing for Battle Royal to Take Place at Monongahela Next Week

The biggest game of football in the Monongahela valley or in Washington county this season will take place Thanksgiving afternoon at Monongahela, when the Monongahela high school and the Charleroi high school teams meet. This is the annual Thanksgiving game that for interest in the Monon valley rivals that of the annual Wash-Jeff—Pitt game in Western Pennsylvania.

This season the Monongahela high school eleven proud in the title of champion claimed with right last season, have been wiping up all high school elevens they played. This includes Homestead high, Washington high and Jeannette high. Charleroi has not been performing so graciously, yet the team here is being supported as a probable winner over the Mononganelians. Probably a large crowd will be attracted to Monongahela for the struggle and some of the regular Thanksgiving attendants at Forbes Field will be missed.

WAR BULLETINS

Washington, D. C., Nov 21.—Austro-German forces in the eastern war theatre have forced the Russians into battle, which developed along the whole front. A group of Austro-Hungarian troops captured 3,000 prisoners.

London, Nov. 21.—Two great battles either or both of which may be decisive are being fought in Poland, and a third conflict of almost equal importance is progressing in east Prussia. The battle between the Vistula and Warta river is exciting the greatest interest. The Russians are claiming partial success. It is believed that the Germans have brought up at least half a million men in an effort to break through the Russian line at that point.

London, Nov. 21.—An Irish regiment in the neighborhood of Ypres gave the Germans a taste of old fashioned fists. The Germans surprised them about midnight when many of them were asleep. The Irish soldiers used their fists and laid the Germans out all along the trench. Most of them retreated the rest surrendered.

Berlin, Nov. 21.—It is said that the French lost 20,000 men and the British had 1,500 drowned in the Ypres canal during the fighting at Dixmude.

Constantinople, Nov. 21.—The civil authorities of Suez, Port Said and Ismailia, at the south, north and center respectivley of the Suez canal, have left for Zafazig, 75 miles west of the canal, owing to the advance of Bedouins and Arabs.

Paris, Nov. 21—Khedive Abbas Hilmi, of Egypt has definitely thrown in his lot with Turkey in the war. He is said to have been absent when Turkey declared war. He has now joined the Turkish forces in Palestine and is preparing to invade Egypt.

London, Nov. 21.—It is reported that an airship was seen over Dungeness Friday evening. The nation to which the airship belongs is not known.

REMARKABLE CASE of Mrs. HAM

Declares Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her Life and Sanity.

Shamrock, Mo.— "I feel it my duty to tell the public the condition of my health before using your medicine. I had falling, inflammation and congestion, female weakness, pains in both sides, backaches and bearing down pains, was short of memory, nervous, impatient, passed sleepless nights, and had neither strength nor energy. There was always a fear and dread in my mind. I had cold, nervous, weak spells, hot flashes over my body. I had a place in my right side that was so sore that I could hardly bear the weight of my clothes. I tried medicines and doctors, but they did me little good, and I never expected to get out again. I got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and I certainly would have been in grave or in an asylum if your medicines had not saved me. But now I can work all day, sleep well at night, eat anything I want, have no hot flashes or weak, nervous spells. All pains, aches, fears and dreads are gone, my house, children and husband are no longer neglected, as I am almost entirely free of the bad symptoms I had before taking your remedies, and all is pleasure and happiness in my home."—Mrs. JOSIE HAM, R. Its a Mistake

Made By Many Charleroi Residents

Many people in a misguided effort to get rid of kidney backache, rely on plasters, liniments and other makshifts. The right treatment is kidney treatment and a remarkably recommended kidney medicine is Doan's Kidney Pills. Charleroi is no exception.

The proof is at your very door. The following is an experience typical of the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in Charleroi.

Mrs. W. Urben, 736 Fallowfield avenue, Charleroi, Pa., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago and they cured me of kidney disease. Another of the family had lumbago and suffered from severe pains in his back. The trouble was brought on by colds which settled in his kidneys. He got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Piper's Pharmacy and took them. The backaches were relieved in a short time. There is nothing to retract from my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. I am only too glad to recommend them again."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Urben had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

CRIMINAL COURT WORK COMPLETED AT COUNTY SEAT

One of the busiest terms of criminal court ever held in the county came to a close this morning. While three judges on the bench the last three days a large number of cases were disposed of, some being entered in several.

S. B. Frye, a high constable of New Eagle borough, a man well up in years refused to contest a charge of wantonly pointing fire arms. He was paroled and given 60 days in which to pay the costs. Judge Irwin advised him to stop the drink habit. The trouble out of which the prosecution grew occurred at Monongahela between two members of the high school football team and the officer. Frye is said to have pulled a gun and pointed it at W. K. Blankenbuehler. The gun was knocked from his hand.

Johnson Williams and C. S. Huffman, charged with larceny and receiving stolen goods, entered pleas of guilty. Goods were taken from the Pennsylvania Railroad company at Shire Oaks. They were fined $1 and costs and sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the county jail for three months.

Marcella Savitch of Coal Centre, was sentenced for selling liquor and furnishing liquor on Sunday to pay a fine $50 the costs and to undergo imprisonment in the county jail for 20 days. Stanley Torein of Ellsworth, entered a plea of guilty to simple assault and battery prefered by Walenty Churazon. He was fined $10 and costs.

The case of the commonwealth against Joe Kokosky, charged with aggravated assault and battery was the last case before Judge McIlvaine Friday evening. The case was finished this morning. The prosecutor was Warren Kinder of Charleroi. He alleged the assault took place when he ordered the defendant and some companions off the Kinder farm.

JUDGE WARNS AUTOISTS AS TO DRINKING

Judge J. A. McIlvaine has issued a warning to all persons who are inclined to run automobiles while they are under the influence of liquor, in the sentence which he imposed this week upon Stanley Veliskey, of Coal Centre, for operating a motor vehicle when intoxicated. At the August term of court he was charged with the same offense and was paroled. The judge refused to parole him this time although there was a petition that he be paroled. Judge McIlvaine stated that it was easy to get signers to petitions.

He stated that no man who drank whiskey ought to run an automobile, and that if a man must drink whiskey he should sell his machine. The court stated that an automobile is dangerous enough if the operator is sober. Veliskey was sentenced to pay the costs and a fine of $300, in default of which he will serve four months in jail. The district attorney was instructed to notify the state highway department of the proceedings so that Velinskey's license could be revoked.

CAR GOES OVER BANK; THEFT IS THEN REPORTED

Thursday night about 11 o'clock the five passenger touring car of Samuel Young of Longtown, went over the steep embankment on the south road from Monessen and Pleasdale and the seven passengers were thrown out. [illegible] escaped serious injury or death.

Mr. and Mrs. Young and their two children had been visiting friends in Monessen. They left about 11 o'clock Thursday night in their car for their home using with them Mr. and Mrs. Walter Allison and baby of Monessen. They had gone only a short distance out of Monessen when the machine skidded and slipped over the embankment, turning turtle and throwing out the occupants.

They returned to Monessen. When they returned to get the car it had been stripped. They lost clothing, robes, electric lights, tools, inner tube and other articles from the car. The machine was badly damaged, but is not beyond repairs.

GALLATIN MINER BEATEN AND ROBBED

Beaten unconscious by a burly negro in front of the Manown mine early Thursday night, John Miller, a miner of Gallatin, was robbed of $18 and a gold watch. The state police were given a description of the assailant. The negro asked Miller if he knew what time it was, then produced a revolver and demanded to know if he had any money. Before Miller could answer he was struck in the face with the butt of the weapon. Dr. J. G. Warner of Manown, arrived just as the negro was departing.

NONE IMMUNE TO DISEASE

It Is Now Recognized as a Fallacy That the Weak Are More Generally Its Victims.

The claim has been advanced that the infectious diseases have benefited the race by the destruction of the unfit. This idea I have combated most vigorously since our study of typhoid fever in the army, writes Dr Victor L. Vaughan in Science. My colleagues and I found that out of 9,484 soldiers who had previously been on the sick list report and could not be regarded as possessing standard health, 648, or 6.8 per cent, contracted typhoid fever; whereas out of 46,348 men who had no preceding illness, 7,197, or 15.3 per cent, developed typhoid fever. More than 6 per cent of the men who developed typhoid had no preceding intestinal disorder. Under ordinary conditions the strong, busy man, especially the one whose activities demand wide excursions from his home, is more likely to become infected than the one whose sphere of action is more limited on account of infirmity. The reason for this is too obvious to need statement, and it follows that more men than women and more adults than children have typhoid fever. Moreover, the mortality is greater among the strong. Contagion, like war, destroys the very flower of the race. The view is sustained by the historians of the pestilence of former times.

New Modern English.

Little lessons in manners where she deems them necessary are being given by Miss Agnes Scotland, stenographer to City Forester John Boddy, to school children calling at city hall for garden seeds this week.

"Tip your cap," she told a boy yesterday.

A dull stare of incomprehension met the suggestion.

"Tip your cap."

Still no response.

"O, lift your lid," shouted Miss Scotland.

Off came the cap. He understood that.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

RUBBER STAMPS

Are all very well for certain purposes. They are a necessary part of the equipment of most offices. But they were never intended to be used to print letterheads, billheads or envelopes, and the man who uses stationery printed with a rubber stamp makes a bad impression on his correspondents.

Let us show you samples of our Job Printing and quote prices. You may be surprised to learn how little good letterheads cost.

That Letter—

You never received a reply to it, and you wonder if it was delivered or if it was lost. If your name and address had been on the envelope it would have been returned to you if the addressee could not be found.

Let us show you how cheap we can print 500 or 1,000 envelopes. We will also print letterheads. The material, workmanship and price will be right.

THRIFT.

Thrift, at all times, is one of the primary virtues to be desired and cultivated. In a very large and true sense, it is the father of comfort. Yet it is the one cardinal virtue which we Americans most have neglected.

Our attitude in this regard has been unparalleled natural resources. "Why save when we have so much to spare?" has been the inner exclamation of millions of people who saw in the soil and forests of this fertile land an inexhaustable supply, says an exchange.

These near-sighted enthusiasts did not stop to consider that there is no such a thing as an inexhaustable supply of any thing except air and light—and some day we may learn enough about these mainstays to know that they can be used up however slowly.

Now comes the greatest of wars and with its dread destruction it brings especially to our own people a new sense of the value of thrift.

As yet we have not felt the pressure very heavily. As a matter of fact, the worst is yet to come. We might as well face facts when we have to.

Every day of fighting on the fields of Europe now is destroying more than $30.000.000 according to statistics carefully compiled by experts.

Six months of this grisly business will mean a loss of $5.400.000,000.

It stands to reason that this enormous slice of tangible world wealth cannot be cut off without everyone everywhere feeling the effects of the amputation.

No such amount can be wasted—and that is what is being done with it—without everyone everywhere finding it necessary to be more careful to avoid waste.

Perhaps the best possible definition of thrift is "avoidance of waste."

Perhaps the most inexcusable thing in the world is waste.

Certainly—no "perhaps" here—nearly everyone wastes more or less every day.

And but for a terrible jolt such as will result from this war, waste would go on in nearly every home, shop and factory.

Now, for many moons to come, we will have to be more saving; more careful; less wasteful.

For many people it will be a matter of dig or die, and under such circumstances folks usually dig!

It's a big blessing in disguise—though everyone wishes it might have come in some other form.

For this riot of waste may teach us the value of thrift as nothing else could have done. And it may do more than this. It may teach us the foolishness of maintaining, at enormous expense, huge engines for the propagation of such waste. As M. Yves Guyot, a former member of the French cabinet, has said "Will not the hard-learned economic lessons of the war, the world-wide reduction of standing military expenses after hostilities cease, the development of initiative, thrift and the feeling of lasting security which is to replace the uncertainty and hesitation to which the armed peace policy had reduced the whole of the world for many a year."

In time we'll learn our lessons!

OPEN SEASON FOR FIRES

This is the open season for dangerous fires. Every day the news dispatches contain stories of disastrous conflagrations in some of which, more portentious than others, lives are lost.

The worst fires occur during the winter season, which of course is quite natural, considering the degree of chance people take when chilled by severe winds and a frigid atmosphere.

Carelessness is a contributing cause to many disasters. Insurance companies in starting their investigations into conflagrations and their origin invariably consider that possibility, and it occasionally happens that some suffering individual is deprived of his insurance money because he had failed to use common sense in perfecting gas connections, or had been guilty of some form of indiscretion.

Every person is familiar with the story of a man who connected a decrepit gas stove through the use of a last year's model gum hose that was worn and rotten. Then after the explosion and the fire, he couldn't collect his insurance. This might not be such an unusual case after all.

It is absolutely necessary that the greatest care be taken in fixing gas connections, in starting coal fires, in lighting matches where there is danger, in having gasoline too close to any kind of a blaze—in short care is necessary wherever there is a possibility of fire. Otherwise an experience may be in order similar to that told in a bit of verse of an Indiana man who went to the cellar with a match in search of a gas leak. He found it.

Which Charm?

The bracelet that adorned Bet's arm
A blaze of gems and gold,
Possessed for me a wondrous charm.
My gaze for hours 'twould hold.

Or was I always held spellbound,
My roving glance enmeshed,
By Betty's arm, so whitely round,
Blue-veined and plumpy fleshed?

No matter which; I sorrowed when
The bracelet disappeared.
Last night, when it came back again
I gasped—and then I cheered

She wears it now up'n her knee.
Bewitchingly it flirts
And winks through that inverted V
Which slashes Betty's skirts.

The bracelet or the knee— But, stay!
I'd better say no more.
Except—when Betty comes my way,
I gaze as before.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A well known doctor in an up river town is noted for his boasted calmness and his love of method. He carries both to extremes at times, his aunt considers, but that doesn't spoil the story she tells of him.

Not long ago she tiptoed into his room on the second floor some time after midnight and told him she thought there were burglars in the house. The doctor attired himself in his dressing robe and went down stairs.

In the rear of the hall he encountered a tough looking man trying to open a door that led into the back yard. The burglar had successfully unlocked the door and was pulling at it with all his strength. The doctor seeing the robber's predicament, called to him:

"It doesn't open that way, you idiot! It slides back!"

Last summer a wealthy western Pennsylvania woman took with her to the seashore her maid. The maid had never been far away from home before and had never seen the sea.

Her mistress, nodding toward the great, wind-swept expanse of ocean, with its gulls and flying clouds and distant sails, said:

"There, Mary, is the sea. What do you think of it?"

"Oh, mum," Mary cried, "it smells just like systers."

AMONG THE THEATRES

COYLE—CHARLEROI

The Paramount pictures are proving one of the most popular of any class with patrons of the Coyle Theatre. Tuesday of this week, "What's His Name" a drama adapted from George Barr McCutcheon's popular book of the same name was the leading feature. The picture was elaborate in the most minute details. On Thursday the ever popular motion picture star, Mary Pickford was at her best in "Behind the Scenes," a picture which told an interesting story and provided entertaining humor.

PALACE—CHARLEROI

The vaudeville bill for the Palace theatre was exceptionally meritous this week. Rego and Voltet, violinist and harpist of note proved to be the leading attraction. Music of the best class was played in a manner that showed the quality of their work. Newell and Most a team of harmony singers pleased the audiences with the latest popular music and the Dancing Golds featured the latest and most sensational dances. A fine line of photoplays were shown this week.

STAR—CHARLEROI

A great four-reel mine disaster, depicting the suffering of the miners and their families was one of the features at the Star theatre this week. Two of the principal Box Office attractions of the week were "The Human Soul," in three parts, and "The Square Triangle" a three-reel feature. "The Hands of Destiny," is a four-reel feature which was shown Thursday. "Uncle's Finish," and "Pies Is Pies," were two good comics. "Joan of Arc," and "Bond of Love" were the attractions the first of the week.

LYRIC—CHARLEROI

"Her Spanish Cousins," is a sparkling comedy shown at the Lyric in which Miss Hepzebah Perkins, a wealthy New Englander, visits cousins in Spain, who plan to obtain her wealth. She is followed by the hoodoo "13" until she meets with Gustave Schmidt. Francis X. Bushman appeared in "Sparks of Fate," this week. Some of the other pictures of the week were: "For the Cause." "Maria the Foster Mother," "Perils of Pauline." "The Imposter," with Irma Howley in the leading part: "Peg O' the Wild Wood," and "Fatty's Sweetheart."

ALVIN—PITTSBURG

Marie Dressler the funniest woman on the American stage comes to the Alvin Theatre next week as the Thanksgiving attraction in her newest and greatest comedy success, entitled "A Mix Up," presented under the direction of Mr. Shubert. The comedy was written by Parker Hord, a Washington newspaper man, and concerns the misadventures, serious and comic of a musical comedy actress who gets into the wrong flat by mistake. The greatest grouch cannot fail to join in the laughter when Marie Dressler is on the stage. In short, she is that rara avis in the theatrical world—an absolutely irristible comedienne.

In the strong supporting company engaged by the Messrs. Shubert to support Miss Dressler are such well-known players as Bert Lytell, Robert O'Connor, Sarah McVicker, Albert Reed, Julia Blanc, Carlyle Harris, Jack Doherty and Evelyn Vaughan. There will be the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinee and in addition to this a special matinee on Thursday (Thanksgiving Day.)

GRAND—PITTSBURG

An advance view of the program which Harry Davis has prepared for presentation in the Grand Opera House Thanksgiving week, beginning Monday afternoon, November 23, indicates that those who witness the actual performances will have much to be grateful for. It is a holiday bill of pre-eminent features offering notably the first opportunity to see there Douglas Fairbanks, a favorite young star of the legitimate drama in the polite varieties. Mr. Fairbanks, supported by a company of four selected players is to enact "A Regular Business Man," a comedietta written by John Stokes. Around this particularly brilliant headline attraction, Mr. Davis is grouping acts of the highest calibre, including some European novelties on their maiden tour of the states. Among the latter class he announces the engagement of Margaide la Rose, known as "the European feminine Caruso." Most women possessing a double voice sing soprano and base, but Mlle D. la Rose is said to be the only double-voiced singer who sings in both the tenor and soprano registers. She has a wide range and takes a high C with the utmost ease. Van Haven, so called "the dippy mad magician" promises to keep his audience convulsed with laughter. Morin and Wiser will do odd and eccentric stunts with headgear, causing ordinary hats to serve as bomerangs and describe all sorts of comical figures while passing through space. Kremeline and Darrad Brothers will offer something new in equilibrism on flying trapeze. They are Europeans and their accomplishments include an unsupported hand stand on a swinging trapeze which is about the acme of intrepidity and skill. A variety of other features, in addition to motion pictures are programmed.
